

HOUSE COMMEMORATION NO. 1037

Introduced by: Representatives Blake, Abdallah, Deelstra, Elliott, Feinstein, Gibson, Haggard, Hawley, Hubbel, Hunt, Kirschman, Liss, Sigdestad, Steele, Tornow, Wick, and Willadsen and Senators Buhl, Cutler, Heineman, Krebs, Peters, and Schlekeway

A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Commending and congratulating SaiSai Chen, a junior at Lincoln High School in Sioux Falls, on her attainment of a perfect score on the SAT Reasoning Test.

WHEREAS, the SAT Reasoning Test (formerly known as the Scholastic Aptitude Test) is owned, published and developed by the College Board, and is the most widely used standardized test for college admission; and

WHEREAS, the SAT Reasoning Test is taken each year by close to two million students, and in 2010, only three hundred eighty-two of those students attained a perfect score of 2,400; and

WHEREAS, SaiSai Chen, a junior at Lincoln High School in Sioux Falls, took the SAT Reasoning Test in January 2011, and much to her surprise and delight, attained a perfect score of 2,400; and

WHEREAS, SaiSai is an exemplary student in every way, and someone who is admired by her teachers and fellow students alike for her hard work, outstanding academic achievement, positive attitude, and humble demeanor; and

WHEREAS, SaiSai's extraordinary score on the SAT Reasoning Test has opened many doors for her, and allows her to attend virtually any college of her choice to pursue a career in the medical field, and to fulfill her dream of making a difference in the lives of many people:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Eighty-sixth Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that SaiSai Chen, a junior at Lincoln High School in Sioux Falls, be commended and congratulated for her outstanding achievement in attaining a perfect score of 2,400 on the SAT Reasoning Test, and that SaiSai be wished every success and good fortune in her future.
